

POSITION DESCRIPTIONTutor*Organization Profile:

Founded in 1983, The Wooden Floor in Santa Ana, California, is one of the foremost creative youth development nonprofit organizations in the country. We transform the lives of young people in low-income communities through the power of dance and access to higher education. In Orange County and through our national licensed partner, we use a long-term approach grounded in exploratory dance education to foster the confidence and gifts within each child to innovate, communicate, and collaborate – skills necessary for success in school and in life. Since 2005, 100 percent of students who graduate from The Wooden Floor graduate high school on-time and immediately enroll in higher education, and many of them go on to pursue degrees in business, engineering, medicine, and the arts. The Wooden Floor students become change agents and beacons of hope within their own families, their neighborhoods, our community, and our world.

Position Summary:

The tutor is responsible for communicating The Wooden Floor's mission, programs, and policies to students and providing them with the academic support needed through their collaborate work in the Tutoring Program. In addition, the tutor fosters nurturing relationships with students, sets consequences, acts as a role model, and provides support and guidance to students. The tutor must be an effective communicator, a good listener, and maintain a friendly, outgoing demeanor to all stakeholders. The tutor position works closely with the Academic Coordinator and requires independent thought and discretion, as well as the ability to assess situations, their importance and impact to the students and the Tutoring Program.
