Each year, The Wooden Floor raises the bar for 375 low-income kids, providing dance instruction and academic counseling. This year, it raised the bar on fundraising, beating its goal of $150,000 from the Keep the Promise Wine Tasting event by $11,500. The 350 guests at Big Canyon Country Club sipped rare vins from the Rhône region of France donated by John and Janice Markley. Even sweeter: The money will allow the nonprofit to continue its life-changing work. Since 2005, 100 percent of its students have gone on to college. —TJ
